

MICHAEL JOSELO

ARTIST. GRAPHIC DESIGNER.

Let me introduce myself.

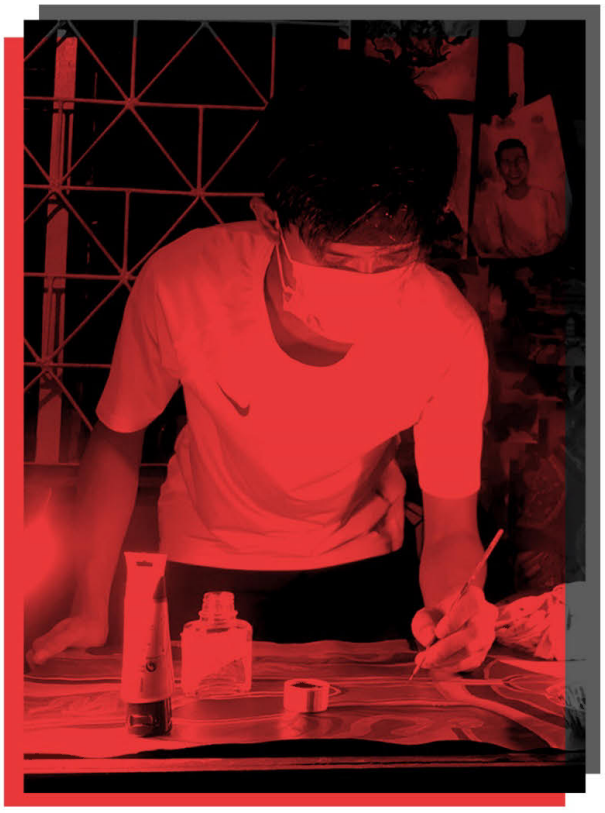

I am Michael Joselo Villanueva, a late 20's artist specializing in graphic design, photography, 2d illustrations, and traditional 2d works, particularly paintings. I have huge interest in doing portrait paintings and digital works (been creating vector art in different styles).

I studied Visual Communication at the College of Fine Arts in University of the Philippines Diliman from 2012-2015. Since college, I have been accepting art and design commissions for a living. I have also been invited as a resource person in a lot of public trainings (seminars) on arts and graphic design. I also do one-on-one trainings. In fact, I have been an art teacher for kids.

All throughout my art career, I have been active in various advocacy. As a student, I volunteered in advocacy organizations in UP Diliman with my art skills and talent as my primary contribution. Further, I helped student councils in giving basic and advanced graphic design trainings to students.

I also worked as graphic designer and an overall resident artist for a partylist in Congress. I started the job in 2016. In a span of four (4) years, I have been in charge with the overall creatives and publicity of the office. On the side, I still volunteed to several political organizations that are in line with my advocacy.

Currently, I am a graphic designer for an independent alternative mediaoutfit making assets/graphics and illustrations for news articles and online news shows. Apart from this, I am also a graphics and layout designer for a lawyer's political and lifestyle magazine.

I am also participating in art shows in several galleries as a professional artist. I always devote time in doing paintings and studying old and new art theories that would help me improve my works. My paintings are mostly inspired by east and southeast asian aesthetics. I am passionate in studying the arts and culture of both east and southeast asia particularly their symbols and art history, and then I try to apply it into contemporary paintings, with appropriate use of their culture. Sometimes, I even incorporate these elements in the political/editorial paintings that I create for the Philippine and the international scene.

Through the years, my works have been recognized for highly intricate details, asian aesthetics and folklore, and application of political advocacy.

You can take a peek of my works in different media in the next pages of this portfolio. You may also view here my curriculum vitae and contact details.

KABATAAN, TAYO ANG PAG-ASA!

Patuloy na isulong ang pulitika ng pag-asa, pakikibaka, at pagbabago!
Lumikha tayo ng kasaysayan at humakbang tungo sa magandang bukas!

Ang kasaysayan ng Pilipinas ay kasaysayang iginuhit ng kabataang handang lumaban para sa bayan.

Malaking bahagi ng populasyon ng bansa ay kabataang may edad 15 hanggang 35. Tangan ng kabataan ang sigla, tapang at ideyalismo. Ito ang sandata sa pagtupad natin sa ating makasaysayang papel: ang paglaban para sa kagalingan at kapakanan ng api at pinagsasamantalahan.

Sa panahong pilit na inaagaw ng umiiral na sistema ang ating karapatan at kinabukasan, nahaharap ang kabataan sa hamon ng pagsusulong ng isang bagong pulitikang nagtatakwil sa bulok na sistema. Ang pulitika ng kabataan ay pulitika ng pag-asa, pakikibaka, at pagbabago.

PAG-ASA

Sa mga nakaraang taon, lalong lumala ang kalbaryong dinaranas ng bayan. Sa "tuwid na daan," pinabayaan ang serbisyong panlipunan gaya ng MRT at LRT; pinasahol ang korupsyon sa pagpapalawak ng pork barrel at Disbursement Acceleration Program; lalong isinuko sa dayuhan ang kalayaan at kasarinlan sa pagpayag na iballik ang mga base militar ng US at ipinahamak ang bayan sa pagpapatupad sa madugong operasyon ng US sa Mamasapano.

Pinagkait sa kabataan ang karapatan at kinabukasan. Lumobo ang presyo ng matrikula at tuloy-tuloy na nagtaas ang mga bayarin sa pamantasan. Pinayagan ang patuloy na panghuhuthot sa mga mag-aaral at magulang sa other school fees. Itinulak sa kawalang pag-asa at kamatayan ang mga mag-aaral.

Nagpataw pa ang gobyerno ng programang K-12 na karagdagang pahirap sa mga magulang at mag-aaral. Isasadlak nito ang mga kabataan sa mas masahol na pagsasamantala at pagkaalipin sa mga dayuhang kapitalista.

Sa gitna ng kawalang pag-asa, hindi tayo nanahimik, hindi tayo nagsawalang-kibo. Pinatunayan natin na mali ang mga nagmamaliit sa kabataan: na nagsasabing wala tayong kakayanan, na wala tayong pakialam, na hindi natin kayang kumilos para sa mamamayan.

PAKIKIBAKA

Tangan ang paniniwalang nasa paglaban ang pag-asa, patuloy na tumitindig ang kabataan bilang malakas na pwersa ng pagbabagong panlipunan.

Sa harap ng patuloy na pagsirit ng presyo ng matrikula at iba pang bayarin, naglunsad tayo ng mga walkout at iba't ibang kilos-protesta sa pangunguna ng mga organisasyon at pormasyon ng kabataan.

Dumagundong sa loob at labas ng mga eskwelahan ang galit ng kabataan sa patuloy na deregulasyon at komersyalisasyon ng edukasyon.

Katuwang ang kaisa-isang representasyon at partido ng kabataan sa Kongreso – ang Kabataan Partylist – nilabanan natin ang sunod-sunod na pagtaas ng matrikula at ipinabasura ang iba pang bayarin. Matagumpay nating hinarang ang mga tangkang kaltas-pondo sa mga pampublikong pamantasan. >>>

CRIMSON PASSION:

THE TOP 10 PINOY HARVARD ALUMNI

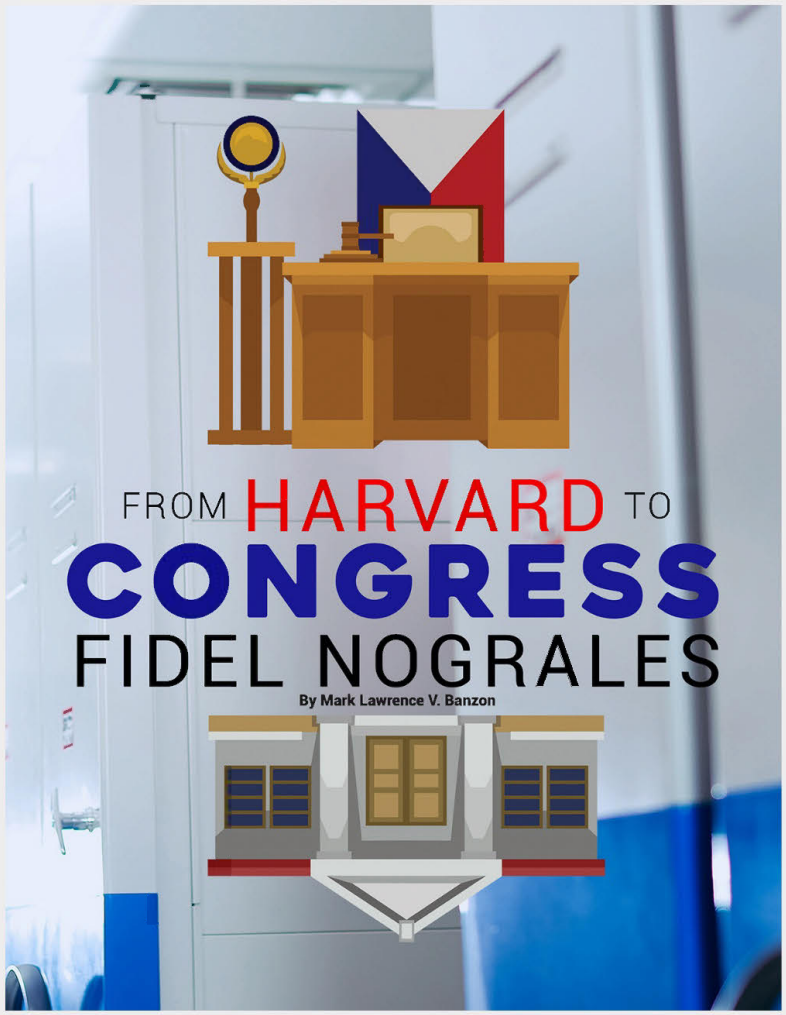

By Liam Bee

Harvard University has always been associated with academic excellence, with various rankings either putting them among or at the top of all universities in the world. Hence, justices, judges and lawyers who obtained their law degrees from Harvard Law School are always revered in the legal sphere regardless of nationality.

The school color of this Ivy League university is crimson, which they also use to refer to their athletic teams and their daily student newspaper, The Harvard Crimson. The color crimson has been used with numerous symbolic meanings in different eras and societies but the more prominent ones include nobility, power, humility and love – traits that are a must for the ideal public servant.

To celebrate this issue, G&R deemed the following Harvard alums as the best among the rest.

THE EXPERIENCE AND WISDOM OF

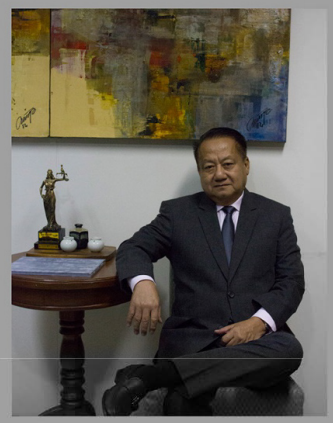

ATTY. RENATO SAMONTE

By Jacob Penn

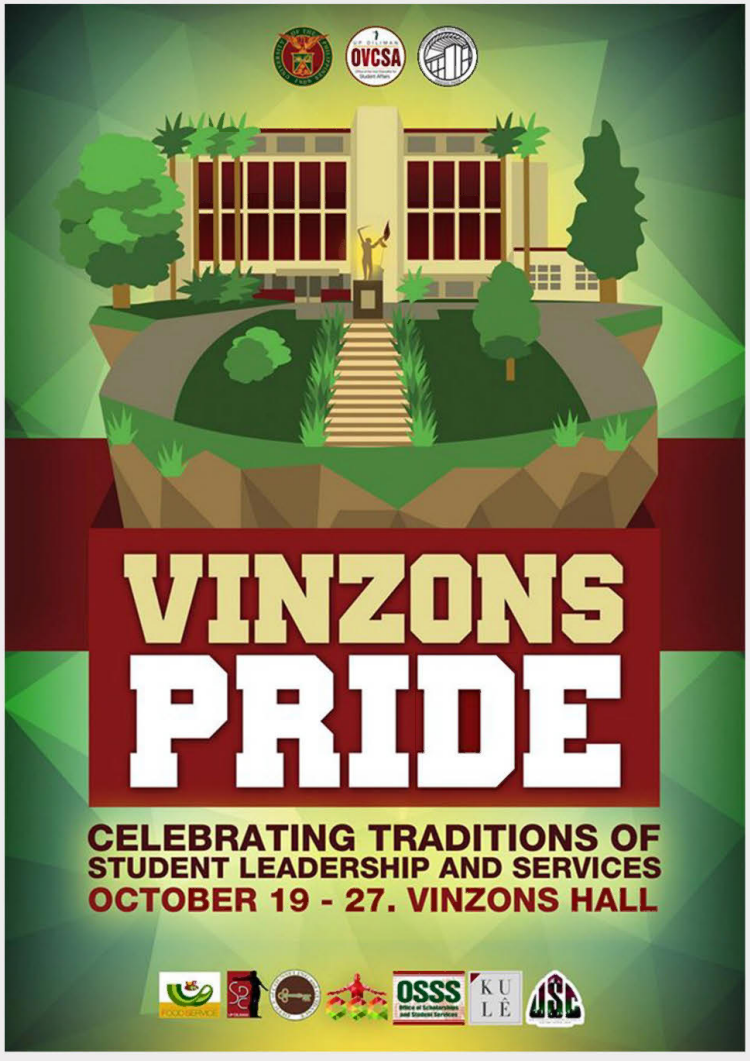

Atty. Renato "Jun" C. Samonte, Jr. probably knows all the corners inside a courtroom like the palm of his hand. Atty. Jun obtained his degree in Political Science from Ateneo De Manila University before he finished his Bachelor of Laws courses in San Beda College. He was admitted to the Philippine Bar in 1982. A trial lawyer since then, Atty. Jun began his legal career honing his skills in court procedure, trial techniques and arguments.

He then worked as the legal counsel and consultant of various establishments and corporate entities to complement his stint as Senior Associate with Dakila F. Castro & Associates Law Offices and as Managing Partner for Samonte Felicen Tria Samonte Law Offices.

Nonetheless, Atty. Jun believes that the legal matters inside the courtroom made the most sense and appeal to his lawyering. Thus, in November 2012, he accepted his appointment to be the Provincial Prosecutor of Bulacan. In July 2018, he also agreed to be the Acting Senior Deputy State Prosecutor and Chairperson for the Special Projects Division of the Department of Justice's National Prosecution Service.

DAHULAYA
A group of students set out to Quiapo to do a documentary on fortune telling. Upon they're journey, they encounter one of Quiapo's famed fortune tellers. They interview this person and documents what she does on a daily basis but the thing is, she is a fraud. "People will believe anything they want to hear" she says, and this is why she is famous for her fortunes. One day, a mysterious customer arrives at her place seeking for-tune. The fortune teller goes about her so-called read-ings about the future of the customer before her. After she had said the fortune, the customer debates with her and the atmosphere starts to get chilly. The conversa-tion ends in silence and the customer walks out, leaving the fortune teller in doubt. In fact, that customer was a real fortune teller coming to give a curse to this fraud.
